Quere,

Quere. Whether to this visible Influence many secret ones may not be added?

Q. Why the Civil List, amounting to upwards of 900000 l. per Ann. is at present in Debt?

Q. Whether any Place-man, Civil or Military, voting against the Dislates of the Ministry, is not turned out?

Q. Whether the Reality, as well as the Form, of our Constitution, does not consist in three separate independent States?

Q. Whether the corrupt influencing either, or both, Houses of Parliament, is not subverting those Parts of the Legislature, and destroying our Constitution?

Q. Whether frequent Attempts have not been made to prevent this growing Evil, and to no Purpose, since, notwithstanding these Attempts, there never were so many Place-men in Parliament at one Time as there are now?

Q. Whether the Application of this Influence may not at any Time defeat the Endeavours of those out of Employment, to vindicate the Honour and protect the Trade of the Nation?

Q. Whether, in Case this Influence should be applied to any Question, it would not be imposing on Mankind to debate it?

Q. Whether those who saw it in this Light would not have been Criminal if they had omitted to inform the Nation of their Apprehensions on so important a Point?

Q. Whether they could by any other Method than withdrawing from Debate have apprised their Constituents of their Despair of serving them by farther Attendance?

Q. Whether it is not the Duty of every Elector in Great Britain, in order to preserve his own Rights and those of his Posterity, to require the Concurrence of his respective Representatives effectually to promote a proper Place-Bill in Parliament?

Q. Whether if this be refused now, it is not easy and necessary to stipulate for it at the next Election of a Parliament?
